

Bruchsal (Germany) Seismic Monitoring Network Commissioned

A new seismic monitoring network around the Bruchsal geothermal facility was successfully installed and commissioned by Q-con in April/May 2010.

The monitoring stations are equipped with high sensitivity downhole geophones, which Q-con has developed especially for geothermal reservoir monitoring.